

The logo is presented on a black easel with a light blue canvas. The word "Rainbow" is written in a large, purple, bubbly font with a white outline, slanted upwards. The letter 'o' is replaced by a yellow artist's palette with various colored dots and a paintbrush. A vibrant rainbow with red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple bands extends from the end of the word "Rainbow". A white dove is shown in flight, carrying the left end of the rainbow. Below the rainbow, the word "Canvas" is written in the same purple, bubbly font, also slanted upwards.
